

Create a Reality Declaration for all Outcomes in Your Life.

- I am a presence in a female bodysuit on Earth Mission of a Sophia Authority In this present moment of space and time.
- As a Sophia Authority I have... the strength, the stability, the support, resources, and community who stand together in accomplishing Earth's mission of removing all domination energy agendas to extinction.
- I am clear about the adventure, I am stable and supported.
- We have respect and unity... within... this community.
- My work, in the Sophia Collective, adds meaning brings lightness, and it expels all fear.

You can play with the words later, but is that sufficient for now? You're claiming Sophia, we're claiming connections, we're claiming support, we're claiming respect and unity in our stand.
