

Chapter Three

The Garden and the Chakras

It Began

Eve wandered down the sandy path toward the home she shared with Adam. Eve smiled as she watched see her songs add color to the garden and observed as her dance called to birds flying through the trees. Amazing adventure, she thought.

She had spent a great deal of time exploring this new home, while Adam flowed the unlimited energy from the Sun with love and generosity to nourish and strengthen her. Eve worked directly with the Earth Mother. The resources from the Sun and that stored within the Earth assured that this planet could sustain life with abundance and ease. The garden was just one aspect of the design Eve had created to make sure that those who would be joining this mission would have all that they needed to thrive.

Then, just after sunrise, an Ancient Teacher had approached Eve.

“Come,” she had invited. “We need you now.”

Eve’s heart sang remembering the invitation. They had spent the day together. Eve had not conceived that there could be such joy. Even planning and designing the lush garden for their mission had not lifted her spirits in this way.

Her Teacher had reminded her very precisely of the composition of the energy fields around this planet. “Remember,” she had said, “that there are those within the Greater Life Flow who dominate and use your Greater Family. Those with the agendas to control and use do not know your assignment. They are still in the dark just as the Greater Counsel had intended. We have to stay ahead of them. Now, comes the big part for you.”

In her initial task of working with Mother Earth to call forth resources and beauty, Eve had forgotten that the energies from Outsiders had been carried onto this new home. Those parasitic and dominating energies would continue to pollute and kill as long as they remained hidden, unseen. The Law of Manifestation that existed on this new world, the very Law that she had used for the Garden and other aspects of the mission support, would cause the Outsider’s energy of constrictions to appear. The same Law would manifest

Fear, Discounting and other forms of the Outsider’s energy presence.

Because of her Teacher’s reminder, Eve realized there was another step.

First, she must discern difference between the energy of Divine Good and the energy of Parasitic, Dominating - Evil. Her Ancient Teacher had come to remind Eve of this critical part of the entire Earth mission and to help her “know” what was of the Light of their Home and what was not. Unless she focused to discern the quality of manifesting forms, the evil of the Outsiders would continue to take away the vibrancy of the volunteers.

Today, with the help of her Ancient Teacher, Eve had been able to taste and know the difference between what would bring Good and what would restrict and even destroy Good. Her Soul sang in ways she had not remembered was possible.

How the Garden Fits

The Bible myth of The Garden holds some basics about what took the plan off track. The Male needed a help-mate because his body suit carried the ownership contracts. The Outsiders could monitor and use him as will. In essence, the Outsiders "gods" owned the Soul in the Male body. This Soul trusted that the Souls with the Female mission to identify and remove these "gods" who had gained ownership over out families. The Female was a help-mate to keep him safe with her ability to discern Outsider's approach and to command their removal.

In addition, this was a new planet, a planet of denser material, a planet where word/thought/vision created. The Female used the Law to call forth the lush garden to provide for the Volunteers. Once that was done, the "serpent", ancient symbol of the Teacher or the Wise One, came into the Garden. The Ancient Teacher came because it was time to initiate the Female into her next assignment. And according to plan, the serpent approached the Female to awaken her ability to "Know Good and Evil." This was not about the Female wanting knowledge. This was about specific knowledge and her assignment to use her Belly Wisdom, her sensory system. I also required communications with off-planet Spiritual teams ready to respond to the Female's request for Outsider removal. This Soul in a Female body suit had ultimate authority to "Ask and receive". And so the serpent came and helped "her" step into her mission and practice "tasting".

Following the chakra points, you can understand, claim and awaken each power center.

Learning and using the Law of Attraction, the Law of Manifestation, the Law of Self action was not for financial gain, relationship compatibility, although they all work in those areas of life. It was to have the ability to create cultures of Benefit and then have gained the ability to “taste” forms that would constrict life ignorer to command it’s removal for our family’s energy fields.

What part of that assignment are you doing in your life this week?

Where do you see others doing it?

Our Divine Agenda and Plan

Compare these concepts of ownership and domination to the concepts of the Divine Agenda of Our Soul Family:

- We plan to experience any aspect of our Divine Nature/Home of Good.
- We will experience the aspect directly as we choose and when complete, we will choose another.
- We will share our experiences, listen to other’s experiences in order to vicariously know more of that which We are.
- There was no punishments, no limits, no fragmentations or blame.
- We have clear, direct connections to our team in our Home of Spirit.

The Outsiders had now stepped fully onto this planet and anchored their agendas here. They re-engineered the DNA to two strands: Survive and Procreate. They then disconnected the heart-wiring from the male body suit and the power of Solar Plexus from the female. The mission force was now imbalanced and walking on eggshells. Next class we will consider the Outsider's Directives

At some point, "she", and the Bible uses the name Eve, was so excited that she slipped up and told "he"/Adam. Eve invited Adam to go with her to try "tasting" and knowing the difference between Good vibrational forms and Evil vibration forms. Adam did.

"The rest is history", as they say.

Those monitoring Adam saw immediately that they had been tricked. They set about to fix the problem and take back ownership.

Check out the directives the "god" gave to Adam and Eve in the Garden. Actually, the directives were given to Adam because he was the one owned by the Outsiders:

- They could have all of the experiences except they could not have knowledge the Good and Evil existed here.
- They could no longer be in the natural system of abundance but must "earn" their bread for "sweat" wages
- They were told that they were to birth many children (who would also be owned by the Outsiders)
- The birthing/creating process was to bring great pain to the female.
- Next the "god" who had reclaimed domination banished the Teacher of Ancient Wisdom from walking upright or from being in Support of the female.
