

Walking Upright in a World Gone Mad

Assignment #2

There are many concepts that the masses have accepted as "truth". If a concept is false, then by using it as your foundation and build with it, your lives will be, at best, imbalanced and unstable. At the worst those false concepts will bring disease, entrapment, constant pain and a deep sense of "death".

In this course we will be using concepts that were given to me over my 30 years of being taught by Spiritual Beings who have held Galactic Secrets. The concept held by the masses to consider in this lesson is, "All there is, is Love."

When you look around in the world today, you will see that idea cannot be truth. Otherwise you would have to normalize sex trafficking, prisons for profits, growing poverty and homelessness, etc. as expressions of Love. Doesn't make sense, does it?

It didn't make sense to me in the late 1980's. So, I asked my Spiritual Teacher to show me where these cycles of pain, disease, sabotage began... in order to heal them.

That was when I was shown many situations our Family of Good had experienced. Situations that had left scars, crippling "seeds" or imprints.

Even more importantly, I was told that those situations had created three distinct and constant streams of energy, each manifesting its beginning.

The streams are:

- Our Energy Flow of Our Divine Home of ALL GOOD
- An Energy Flow of Spontaneous Imbalance inserted worlds ago
- An Energy Flow of Intentional Domination and Usury from Societies Outsider of Our Divine Families from invasions worlds ago.

Energy will manifest to reflect the original "seed"/imprint and so we have these manifestation:

- ALL GOOD exists and manifest in many faces of that GOOD, i.e. generosity, joy, laughter, benefit, respect, abundance, etc.
- Spontaneous Imbalance manifests in various facets such as fear, doubt, discounting, hopelessness, etc.
- Intentional Domination from Outside Societies creates systems, cultures and attitudes of slavery, racism, violence, deceit, control, etc.

So, you see why the world looks like it has gone mad?

The Spiritual worlds are just as mixed and contaminated. Just because contact and information comes from Unseen Forces, it does not assure it is accurate or beneficial.

So, Your Assignment, BE THE MASTER OF YOUR OWN SPACE.

Write what you require from all who bring Spiritual Contact, Information, or Invitations.

What are their character qualities, values, and their commitments?

My Spiritual teachers have the qualities of _____ .

Interactions with my Spiritual guides leaves me feeling _____.

Values that my Spiritual teachers and I share are _____.

Take your Statements into the Reality Shift Process and Fire Building model.

Process for Your Tool Box

Building a STRONG PRESENCE OF MASTERY

Reality Shift Process

This is the tool to use to redesign and expand your life. Unlike an affirmation, the Reality Shift works from the Higher realms and is directed by your Soul design.

The Reality Statement begins a process and has two purposes.

1. To identify any contrary or sabotaging imprints within your energy field that has and would stop you from having the experience.
2. To create the North Star, the end result, for your new choice.

Simplified version:

Step 1: Align every quanta of my energy and the collective energy field to that experience.

Step 2: PTO teams, Identify and remove all Outsiders energies at their beginning cause. Healers, TAG and Transform all imbalanced imprints that would prevent or sabotage that experience at their beginning cause.

Step 3: I ask the Design team to create the programs for these experiences and download the codes into the appropriate dimensional region. And activate the program within all 64 regions of my life flow.

A Reality Shift can be repeated three to four times for the first three days. Treat this energy field like you are building the fire to keep yourself warm. Imagine the outcome. Give thanks for the new experience, etc. You can also create a card with your reality statement to post on your mirror, refrigerator, in your office, etc.

Brain Balance

To anchor and integrate new Realities into your brain and neurological system your brain needs the same movement that it used as a child to program the brain.

Here is one Process that will work. It is from Edu-K.

A. Read the Reality Statement.

B. Cross Crawl....March in place crossing the meridian of your body, left hand to right knee and right hand to left knee. As you Cross Crawl, keep your face forward and move your eyes as if they are paintbrushes that you are using to paint the wall in front of you.

C. Puppet. March in place lifting right hand and right leg at the same time and then left hand and left leg at the same time. As you do the puppet, move your eyes like paintbrushes as in step B.

D. Visualize the Reality Statement as if you were in the experience.

E. Hold both hands out to the side at shoulder height. Each hand symbolizes one hemisphere of your brain. Gently, lift your hands above your head and interlace fingers. Then bring the linked hands down to through the chakras and draw energy into your hands from the earth.

F. Cross crawl to anchor the reality into the body.

Also, any movement or dance will work as a way to anchor the new information into the brain and neurological system.
